

Enhancing Access to Education and Preventing Gender-based Violence of Asylum Children in Serbia

Bogovođa, 2nd i 3rd July 2015

Victimology Society of Serbia has designed and implemented 8 workshops entitled Identification and prevention of gender-based violence for the children-asylum seekers. Workshops were organized in the Center for asylum seekers in Bogovođa June 23rd and 24th, 2015.

The aim of the project implemented by the Asylum Protection Center (APC/CZA) is to enable enrolment of asylum children into formal education system in Serbia and increase capacities of relevant local and state actors involved in education of asylum children and in prevention of gender based violence. Project aims at increasing awareness of the violence over asylum children and empowering asylum children in recognizing and preventing different forms of gender based violence.

<http://www.europa.rs/>
http://ec.europa.eu/europeaid/index_en.htm

This project is funded by The European Union.

This project is implemented by the Asylum Protection Center in partnership with Victimology Society of Serbia. The views expressed on this website do not necessarily reflect the views of The European Union.