

Support for victims of violence, discrimination and harassment in the workplace

The main project activities are aimed at prevention and assistance to female victims of domestic violence, discrimination and harassment at workplace. Innovations and what makes this project unique in Serbia are: Promoting mediation as a form of restorative justice and a way to resolve conflicts; support to female victims in court in order to empower them and reduce drop-out of prosecution of the perpetrators.

The project is financed by the United Nations Development Program in collaboration with the Ministry of labor, employment and social policy within the joint project of the United Nations in Serbia "Integrated response to violence against women in Serbia".
