

The "Campaign Do not allow treating domestic violence victims as criminals"

Within this project VDS has provided support to woman, who was a perennial victim of domestic violence and she was addressing the victim support service of the Victimology Society of Serbia VDS info and victim support, which is then charged with a crime of domestic violence. Activities during the 2011th involved the trial monitoring of the process in which the woman was injured, addressing the Appellate Court in Belgrade, providing emotional support during the trial and detention, as well as contacting the Correctional Institution for Women in Požarevac regarding informations on conditional release. The project realization directly were involved: prof. Vesna Nikolić-Ristanović Jasmina Nikolić, volunteers of VDS info and victim support and attorney Tijana Kostić. In addition, in the project implementation was cooperated with the Counseling Center against Family Violence.

Implementation of the project was funded by the Reconstruction Women's Fund.
