

Dealing with the past and building peace in the Western Balkans

Project Dealing with the past and building peace in the Western Balkans realized the Berghof Institute, Berlin (Germany). VDS role in this project meant: consulting on methodology and help in data collection in Serbia through interviews with representatives of victims and human rights organizations. During the 2011th data collecting through interviews was continued and transcripts of interviews conducted in Serbia, Bosnia and Croatia were made.

In the implementation of planned activities directly were involved: Prof. Vesna Nikolić-Ristanović (consultant), Jasmina Nikolić, Nikola Petrović, Bejan Šaćiri and Dr. Sanja Čopić (data collection through interviews and transcripts of interviews), while Tamara Kljajić, Jelena Srnić and Natalija Cecelja assisted in making the transcript of the interview.
